

ElicitationMethods

In our project, we elicited through an analysis of Professor Rocío's research. This was extremely useful as it greatly facilitated our understanding of our target audience. The most important aspect was all the information from the research to understand the complex perspective of a child. We should apply educational methods to confirm or refute our assumptions, since this was done entirely based on the research and our understanding of it.